Dear Victoria:

Thank you for having helped my father so much in the past several months. He was continuously pleased and delighted with your aid: driving him around where he needed to go, and then handling every aspect of his move from his old house to his new retirement place. Your attention to every detail of the move, your keeping things really moving along, and your concern for his feelings all made this terrifically difficult process much easier and more pleasant for him, "and made it possible for me and my brothers not to have to move in for a couple of months with him." Again, thanks for your efficiency, your thoroughness, and your genuiune courtesy and sensitivity. Always you have made my dad feel that you were really helping him, not just doing a job."

Sincerely,

Paige Cubbison
